Jean Miso is an author, composer, performer and teacher.

Ms Miso was made an Honorary Ranger of 3rd Canadian Ranger Patrol Group in 2017. She received a Veterans Affairs Commendation in 2014 for her outreach and commitment to Veterans and a Commanders Commendation in 2012 for her unwavering dedication in educating the Canadian public and for her support of Canada's military

The proceeds from her books are donated to various organizations that support Veterans, Remembrance and current serving members in our Canadian Armed Forces. She has raised just over $50,000 for these causes. In addition, Ms Miso has started working on a new objective to purchase a home for homeless veterans.

Her song "We'll Never Forget/Noublions jamais" is the official theme song for the Juno Beach Centre in Normandy France.
