

Our Lady of Hope Father Frederick McGinn St. Marguerite D'Youville

PRESENT

JEFF A.D. MARTIN

ON THURSDAY, MAY 9, 2024 AT 7PM

at Our Lady of Hope School - 80 Red Cardinal Trail, Richmond Hill, ON L4E 4B8

We welcome JEFF A.D. MARTIN to speak to our parent community about building resilience of students and what we need to know as parents about social media.

Jeff A.D. Martin is a soul-stirring, thought-provoking, highly requested transformational speaker, who has been using his platform to inspire people from around the world.

Much of Jeff's love for people can be attributed to his years of involvement as a community advocate, mentor, and also to his 15+ years of experience in Law Enforcement. Jeff has worked as a police officer and in various investigative roles. He is a youth communication specialist, with over 1000 forensic interviews with children.

Jeff is also an author of two critically acclaimed books. A City of Toronto best-selling children's book, "Brothers from the 6/ Sisters from the 6: Role Models in my Community", and an Amazon best-selling personal development book, "KNew Me: 10 Men, 10 Stories of Perseverance".

Jeff is an award-winning professional speaker, a certified coach, University of Guelph certified leadership professional, Harvard University certificate recipient for public speaking, Diversity & Inclusion Trainer from Ashton College and the curator of Inspire Legacy Company Online Academy, where he teaches the art of public speaking and student character development.

With his career and life experiences, coupled with his benevolence and passion to inspire, Jeff A.D. Martin shares his gift of purpose in efforts to help others find their true potential.

